

Engaged

Miss Dayna Lou Calhoun will wed Richard Eugene Howell.

Dayna Calhoun To Wed R. E. Howell

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Calhoun, of 11107 Wagner, Culver City, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Dayna Lou, to Richard Eugene Howell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Howell, of 3809 181st st., Torrance.

The engagement was announced to both families at an informal gathering recently.

Both Miss Calhoun and Howell will graduate from North Torrance high school this June.

The wedding date has not as yet been set.

Oh, the Days of the Maypole Dancers

Harbor City Pupils Provide Their Own Spring Sunshine

A silver-gray day was the setting for the recent Harbor City elementary school Spring Fantasy held on the playground.

The be-ribboned May Poles, rainbow-hued costumes, and the small well-scrubbed smiling faces of the children, however, made up for any lack of sunshine.

The program, which presented each class in the school, was as smooth as the ice cream which followed the gala occasion.

Manuela Matute was supervisor of the production assisted by Mrs. Ruth Wilson.

All costumes and props were made by Harbor City PTA mothers.

Hugh Tower, A6 student, was the efficient and polished master of ceremonies.

After the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, led by Dan Henderson and Michael Savidan, greetings were extended to the parents by Mrs. Avis Marie Crech, principal, and Mrs. Charles Hilzer, Harbor City PTA president.

Professional music of the Festival March heralded the entrance of Ruth Wilson and Mary Anne Brown's kindergarten pupils for their presentation of "Maypole Rhythms."

Sue Phippen and Marian White's Kindergarten, B1, and A1 students followed with "I Should Like to Go to the Shetland."

Ruth Brown and Mary Griff's B1, A1, and B2 students presented "The Teddy Bear's Picnic."

Alice Godsil and Vera Newman's A1, B2, and A2 pupils gave "Shoo-Fly."

Ruth Christmas and Violet Crawford's A2, B3, and A3 students did "Yankee Doodle."

Betty Ann Hall and Francis Rush's B3, A3, and B4 pupils performed "The Hitchhiker."

Manuela Matute and Eunice Ball's 4 students presented "Gustaf's Skool."

May 26. This is the Ways and Means project.

Wednesday, May 30, is the publicity committee's Kid's Party. This will be a pot luck dinner with the publicity committee furnishing the meat for the dinner.

Dinner will start at 5 p.m. After dinner there will be games.

The homemaking committee has joined the publicity committee to plan the affair.

The April meeting of the West 226th Street Neighborhood club of Torrance was held at the home of Harriet Senecal, 1204 West 226th street.

It was a baby shower honoring Mrs. Robert Casey.

Several members of the Torrance Church of Christ were also present.

After several games were played Mrs. Casey opened her gifts, and refreshments were served.

Opal Smith made three cakes. Punch and coffee were served. Cradle favors held nuts and candies.

Co-hostesses were Jean Majland, Jean Erskine and Opal Smith.

Others present were: Mrs. Dalene Hayden, Mrs. Elva Monaghan, Mrs. Elmer Prout, Mrs. Clara Fast, Mrs. Opal Safreed, Mrs. Dorothy Hunt, Lois Austin, Lillian Pocaroba, and Loise Allshouse.

Others were: Bessie Swisher, Alice Licht, Diane Woolover, Becky Aguilar, Dean Kelly, Bert Schneider, Winifred O'Boyle, Mary Garrett, Margaret Lyon, and Greta Hefflin.

Helen Rice was from Lompoc, California.

Women of Moose Hold Hospital Night

Hospital Chapter Night was held recently at the Women of the Moose meeting.

Janet Reilly, the student nurse sponsored by the Women of the Moose, gave a talk on nurses' training and requirements.

Miss Reilly is president of her class at the hospital and she was chosen to be the Student Nurse of the month of March.

Five new members were taken into the chapter.

They were Esther Seppala, sponsored by Joyce Clay; Myrno Allison, sponsored by Francis Coble; Ann Lietze, sponsored by Edna Havisen; Peggy Thompson, sponsored by Merie Koshak; and Janet Reilly, sponsored by Helen Benton.

Academy of Friendship Session was held at Sacramento.

The Torrance Chapter of the Women of the Moose had five members eligible to take their Friendship Degree. They were Cora Hill, Cordie White, Dolores Olson, Virginia Olson and Peggy Peacock.

The Escort Team of the Women of the Moose recently put on the drill work for the Westchester Lodge men's installation.

Thursday, May 17, the nominating committee will meet at the home of Joyce Clay to nominate officers for election on June 6. Saturday, May 19, is the regular Moose Dance Night, open to the public.

Women of the Moose will hold a Bake Sale on Saturday.
